

Image 1

Welcome to the Smallville Season 11 interactive story!

The story picks up after the events of season 10, with Clark Kent now fully accepting his role as Superman and working to protect Metropolis.

Chapter 1: Lois' Investigation

Lois Lane, Clark's fiancée and a seasoned journalist at the Daily Planet, is investigating a new story. She's uncovered evidence of a secret government project that involves experimenting on human beings.

Option 1: Lois decides to go public with the story, even though it could put her in danger.

Option 2: Lois decides to investigate further before going public with the story.

Option 3: Lois shares the information with Clark, hoping he can use his powers to get more information.

What do you want Lois to do? Choose your option.

Image 2

Lois decides to share the information with Clark. She knows that he has connections and abilities that could help uncover more information about the project.

Clark agrees to help and uses his X-ray vision to investigate the government agency rumored to be involved. He discovers that they're using illegal methods to experiment on inmates from local prisons.

Option 1: Clark and Lois confront the government agency directly, hoping to put a stop to the project.
Option 2: Clark decides to investigate further, trying to get more information before taking action.
Option 3: Clark decides to enlist the help of his friend, Oliver Queen (aka Green Arrow), to help take down the project.

What should Clark do next? Choose your option.

Image 3

Clark decides to investigate further, trying to get more information before taking action. He uses his powers to gather more information without tipping off the government agency.

In the course of his investigation, Clark discovers that the project is being funded by a shadowy organization with ties to Lex Luthor. He realizes that this is a much bigger threat than he initially thought.

Option 1: Clark and Lois team up with Green Arrow to take down the shadowy organization.

Option 2: Clark decides to confront Lex Luthor directly, hoping to get him to cut ties with the organization.

Option 3: Clark decides to try to infiltrate the organization, hoping to bring them down from the inside.

What should Clark do next? Choose your option.

Image 4

Clark and Lois team up with Green Arrow to take down the shadowy organization. With the help of Green Arrow's resources, they put together a plan to bring down the organization and expose their illegal activities.

During the operation, they run into unexpected resistance and a battle ensues. With their combined powers and skills, Clark, Lois, and Green Arrow are able to overcome the organization's forces and shut down the project.

As a result of their investigation, the government agency involved is dismantled and the people behind the project are brought to justice. The people of Metropolis are grateful for their efforts in keeping their city safe.

Option 1: Clark and Lois decide to take a break from investigating and enjoy some time together.
Option 2: Clark decides to investigate a strange energy signature he's detected coming from a remote part of the city.

Option 3: Lois receives a mysterious package that could lead to her next big story.

What should Clark and Lois do next? Choose your option.

Image 5

Clark and Lois decide to take a break from investigating and enjoy some time together. Clark takes Lois to a romantic spot at the top of a high building, where they can see the whole city.

As they enjoy the view, Clark senses something strange. Suddenly, a group of armed men appear on the roof, ordering them to hand over their valuables.

Option 1: Clark fights the armed men, using his powers to protect Lois and take down the attackers.
Option 2: Lois tries to talk the men down, hoping to defuse the situation without violence.

Option 3: Clark decides to use his super speed to whisk Lois away from danger, hoping to avoid a confrontation.

What should Clark and Lois do next? Choose your option.

Image 6

Clark fights the armed men, using his powers to protect Lois and take down the attackers. The thugs are no match for Clark's abilities, and he's able to quickly subdue them.

After defeating the attackers, Clark and Lois realize that they're not safe in the city anymore. They decide to take a vacation away from Metropolis.

Option 1: Clark and Lois go to a remote island where they can enjoy some peace and quiet.

Option 2: Clark and Lois go to a foreign country, hoping to experience a new culture together.

Option 3: Clark and Lois return to Smallville, hoping to spend some time with Clark's parents.

Where should Clark and Lois go on vacation? Choose your option.

Image 7

Clark and Lois return to Smallville, hoping to spend some time with Clark's parents. They arrive to find that the Kent Farm has been taken over by a group of protesters, who are against a new factory being built in the area.

Clark and Lois decide to help Martha and Jonathan Kent negotiate with the protesters to find a peaceful solution to the conflict.

Option 1: Clark uses his powers to intimidate the protesters and force them to back down.

Option 2: Lois uses her journalistic skills to uncover the true intentions of the factory owners, hoping to give the protesters ammunition to fight back.

Option 3: Clark and Lois work with the protest leaders to find a compromise that benefits both sides.

What should Clark and Lois do next? Choose your option.

Image 8

Lois uses her journalistic skills to uncover the true intentions of the factory owners, hoping to give the protesters ammunition to fight back. She discovers that the factory is actually a front for a criminal organization run by one of Superman's old enemies, Metallo.

With this information, Clark decides to take action. He puts on his Superman suit and confronts Metallo and his henchmen.

Option 1: Clark takes down the criminal organization single-handedly, using his powers to defeat Metallo and his goons.

Option 2: Metallo has a kryptonite-powered weapon that weakens Superman, forcing him to retreat and come up with a new plan.

Option 3: Clark calls in Green Arrow and his other allies to help him take down the criminal organization together.

What should Superman do next? Choose your option.